FINDING FOREVER

FINDING FOREVER

AZZI & OSTA proudly presents their second Ready-to-Wear bridal collection, "Finding Forever." This collection, aptly named, celebrates the journey of self-expression and individuality through the pursuit of the ideal dress.

Reimagining elegance through the lens of contemporary femininity, AZZI & OSTA draw inspiration from the multifaceted nature of the modern woman. Embracing a delicate blend of modern nostalgia, whimsical romance, and charismatic allure, each creation is meticulously crafted to embody the essence of feminine power and charm.

"Finding Forever" boldly ventures into the realm of unconventional bridal wear, embracing a fusion of textures, shapes, and techniques. From opulent duchess fabric to delicate point d'esprit plissé, flowing crepe, sumptuous velvet, and whimsical repetitive colorful bows, sculptural busts, peplums, and enchanting elements like Organza Plumeti and timeless Brocade, along with matte sequins, dentelle, and organza florals, and master work of layering in a variety of off-white variations.

"With 'Finding Forever, we aimed to create a collection that speaks to the modern bride's desire for individuality and self-expression. In a world of ever-changing fashion trends, there persists a timeless quest for the perfect dress that reflects one's style and love story. We enjoyed experimenting with new textures and techniques to deliver unique silhouettes and elegant interventions. Introducing sculptural volumes on paillette and intricate material and lace works, once again emphasizing a sense of eternity with the AZZI & OSTA bride." Said Georges Azzi & Assaad Osta.

Accentuating the feminine form, the collection features a diverse range of silhouettes, from dramatic ball gowns and ethereal veils and capes to playful 60's-inspired dresses and sleek column silhouettes, accompanied by intricate floral headpieces and dramatic mermaid skirts, catering to a myriad of tastes.

"Finding Forever" marks a continuous evolution in design and craftsmanship, reaffirming the brands commitment to redefining bridal fashion and offering women the opportunity to embrace their individuality and celebrate their unique styles, presenting garments that embody the essence of modern elegance.
